Before attendance at a school of clinical laboratory science (medical technology) approved by the American Medical Association, student must apply and be accepted by the school. A minimum of 39 hours of professional medical technology courses during approximately 12 months is required to complete the senior year of this program. Successful completion of the first three years does not guarantee admission into a school of clinical laboratory science. Contact the Medical Technology Program Director.

Supplemental Information for BS in Medical Technology

1. Submission to the program director of a transcript evaluation request, including the name(s) of medical technology school(s) where the student is applying.
2. Filing, in the program supervisor’s office before leaving campus, the name of an accredited medical technology school to be attended.
3. Satisfactory completion of a minimum of 12 months of professional training at an approved medical technology school as verified by an official transcript sent to the UNT medical technology program director. The transcript is evaluated by the director who recommends to the dean of the College of Arts and Sciences and the Registrar that a minimum of 39 hours of credit be granted for the completed professional training. These hours are exempt from the UNT residency requirement.
